

The Pacific Multi-Asset Accumulator Range consists of four risk rated funds

Defensive

Suitable for investors with a low appetite for risk. The fund offers the least exposure to equities, with the majority invested in fixed income and other diversifying asset classes.

Conservative

This fund has a comparatively small exposure to equities, ranging between 20% and 60%. The rest is invested in fixed income and other diversifying asset classes.

Core

The fund will typically take a more balanced exposure to gains in equities, with exposure ranging between 40% and 85%. The rest is invested in fixed income and other diversifying asset classes.

Plus

Suitable for investors with a high appetite for risk and wishing to have an active exposure to potential gains in the equity markets.

Our blended approach combines active, passive and direct investments across a diversified, global mix of assets.

Each fund has been created to reflect the particular level of risk an investor is comfortable with and the potential returns they are looking for.
